

Rejuvenate Your Passion: In Your Career and In Your Life

We all want happiness, passion and fulfillment in our lives and careers. Stefanie Zizzo, professional career coach and life coach, believes it is already there, just under the surface of our awareness. In this interactive seminar, Stefanie will help you scratch that surface and catch a glimpse of what happiness and passion means to you. You will learn where and how to dig deeper to uncover the ingredients that when combined, help you to create an environment that brings both rejuvenation and new sparks to your life and work.
